FINAL EXAM 1

THIS IS AN OPEN-BOOK EXAM. Please be sure that students have nothing hidden inside their textbooks as they use them in the exam hall. They will also need their Bibles, which should be free of extra papers and notes.

Given the following information, write a Sunday school lesson for the Preschool age group (babies to six years, or all who have not yet begun to read and write).

TITLE: Joseph's Coat

KEY SCRIPTURE: Genesis 37:1-4; I John 4:19-21 (Read these verses carefully and study them for at least fifteen minutes before you continue.)

MEMORY VERSE: "We love him, because he first loved us" (I John 4:19).

LESSON AIM: To teach that we can get along with others, (especially family members) even when they are unkind.

1. Using Lesson 11 as a guideline, write the introduction to the Bible lesson, showing the method that you plan to use.
2. Using Lesson 12, write a Sunday school lesson, using the teaching method that you have chosen from lessons 13 and 14.
3. Using Lesson 11 as a guideline, write a proper conclusion, using the best method available for this age group.
4. Choose a simple method of review and write it step-by-step. If you choose review questions, make them simple and to the point. If an activity is chosen, give all the details. Apply the lesson aim to whatever review method you choose.
5. Go back and read over your lesson. Be sure that you have used a method that will be easily understood by the students being taught. Be sure that you do not tell the entire story of Joseph. Stay within the confines of the reference given in the Key Scriptures. Check for:
 - 1) Concentration on the Lesson Aim
 - 2) Proper methods for this age group
 - 3) A clear telling of the Bible story
