

Take-Home Quiz for
“Sensory Writing” & “Creative or Critical”
By Barbara Westberg

I. FILL IN THE BLANKS.

- 1) Both _____ and _____ should appeal to the _____.
 - 2) The _____ and _____ gates are the _____ to unlock. They may not apply to every _____ or _____.
 - 3) We gain _____ through our _____, the _____ gates to the _____.
 - 4) Everything we _____, we see, _____, touch, _____, or _____.
 - 5) We _____ knowledge to the _____ the same way we _____ it – through the _____.
 - 6) Good writers _____ their _____. They _____ on what they _____, hear, touch, _____, and _____.
 - 7) Then they translate their _____ experiences into _____ that the _____ can easily _____ back into the real _____.
 - 8) When the _____ gate opens, the _____ walks _____ into his _____ garden.
 - 9) One note of _____ - beware of sensory _____. Too _____ is as _____ as not _____.
 - 10) Writing is _____ (right _____) work. When you write, just _____. Don't worry about _____, sentence structure, or _____. Let creativity flow.
-

II. MULTIPLE CHOICE - in the blanks provided, write the letter of the correct choice for each statement given.

a. see b. hear c. touch d. taste e. smell f. left brain g. right brain

- _____ 1) This sense matches a flag waving in the wind.
- _____ 2) This sense goes with gun powder from fireworks.
- _____ 3) This sense is used with his fist pounding the palm of his hand.
- _____ 4) This part of the brain is used when being critiquing your writing.
- _____ 5) This sense is felt with the weigh of a child sitting on shoulders, trying to see about the crowd.
- _____ 6) This sense is used when the army band is playing “Amazing Grace.”
- _____ 7) This sense goes with tangled hair blowing in the wind.
- _____ 8) We use this sense when slurping juice from a cold watermelon.
- _____ 9) John the Baptist used this sense every time his camel's hair robe was scratchy.
- _____ 10) This part of the brain is creative.
- _____ 11) This part of the brain is used when writing.
- _____ 12) This part of the brain is used when editing for writing.
- _____ 13) This sense is used around a roaring campfire.
- _____ 14) When the Spirit of the Creator flows, this side of the brain is working.
- _____ 15) When a critical spirit comes over you (about anything), this side of the brain is working.